(iii) Notice upon the applicant shall be served in Form-C, by any of the modes, specified in Chapter V of the Code ;

(iv) Notice upon the relatives of the alleged mentally ill person and other persons who, in the opinion of the court ought to have the notice of the judicial inquisition shall be served in Form-D, in any of the modes specified in the Code. Copy of the application shall accompany such a notice.

Explanation.—Where copies of the application are not supplied by the applicant, the court may get prepared requisite number of copies from its own Copying Agency.

5. Examination of the alleged mentally ill person.—(i) When the alleged mentally ill person appears or is produced in the court, the court shall proceed to immediately examine him and if the court finds it difficult on account of the behaviour of the alleged mentally ill person or on account of lack of knowledge of Medical Science to examine such person, it may take the help of the Assessors, at least one of whom shall be a Psychiatrist. Examination shall be recorded in question answer form;

(ii) The court may during the course of inquisition proceedings get the alleged mentally ill person examined from a Board of Psychiatrists, to be constituted by the Chief Medical Officer, Una, on the motion of the court;

(iii) If the alleged mentally ill person is a woman, who according to the custom of the area, or on account of her religion, cannot appear in public and her examination is required as per provision of section 50(2) of the Act, a female Local Commissioner shall be appointed for her examination as far as possible, and for the assistance of such Local Commissioner two or more Assessors may be appointed, at least one of whom shall be a Psychiatrist.

6. Appointment of Assessors.—Assessors may be appointed from amongst;

- (a) the Lawyers, with atleast ten years standing at the Bar, in consultation with the President, Bar Association, Una;
- (b) the doctors, who have done specialisation in Psychiatry, in consultation with the Chief Medical Officer, Una; and
- (c) The educationists, especially those who hold higher educational qualifications and experience in Psychology or Sociology.

7. Evidence of witnesses.—(i) Parties may lead evidence or affidavits or otherwise.

(ii) Notwithstanding the aforesaid provision, the court may refuse to admit the affidavit of any witness in evidence and may direct the party relying upon such affidavit to produce such witness for being examined in the court.

8. Appointment of Guardian ad-rem of alleged mentally ill person.—If the court finds that prima facie the alleged mentally ill person is mentally ill, it will appoint a proper person to be his or her guardian for the purpose of inquisition, in accordance with the provision of Order 32 Rule 3 of the Code.

9. Speedy conduct of Inquisition.—After the appearance/production of the alleged mentally ill person, the court shall proceed with the inquisition from day to day, unless, for reasons to be recorded in writing, it is not possible to do so, and conclude the inquisition and record findings within one month of the appearance/production of such person.

10. Appointment of guardian of a person and Manager of the property of mentally ill person.—(i) While appointing a guardian of the person or the Manager of the property of mentally ill person, it shall be ensured that the appointee is a person, who can take care of the interests of the mentally ill person and his dependents, in the best possible manner;

(ii) A person who;

(a) is a minor;

(b) is insane;

(c) is insolvent;

(d) has been accused of an offence, against the person or the property of the mentally ill person, irrespective of the fact whether the accusation has resulted in acquittal or conviction;

(e) has or is likely to have interest adverse to that of the mentally ill person, qua his property or any item or part thereof, shall not be appointed as the guardian of the mentally ill person or Manager of the property of the mentally ill person, or, both;

(iii) No person shall be appointed as guardian of the mentally ill person or Manager of his property, in his individual capacity, except with his consent, in writing;

(iv) A formal order of appointment of the guardian of the person or the Manager of the property, or both, shall be drawn up and delivered to the appointee, alongwith a list of his duties, responsibilities and powers, as enumerated in Sections 58 and 59 of the Act.

11. Maintenance of register of assets and liabilities of the mentally ill persons.—(i) Where the Manager of the property of the mentally ill person has been appointed by the court and such Manager furnishes the inventory and annual accounts in accordance with Section 60 of the Act, the Nazir of the court shall, on the basis of such inventory and accounts, enter the details of the immoveable as well as moveable property and other assets, as also the debts and liabilities of the mentally ill person, in a register, in the form of a Ledger Account, showing the properties, assets and the claims due to the mentally ill person on one side and the debts and the liabilities due by him on the other;

(ii) Such entries would be revised, from time to time, on the basis of periodical statements of accounts submitted by the Manager and the transactions regarding disposal of the property of the mentally ill person and the acquisition of the property for and on his behalf.

12. Directions for performance of contracts entered into by the mentally ill person before such illness. (i) Before issuing a direction to the Manager for the performance of contract for the disposal of the property, entered into by the mentally ill person, before his mental illness, under sections, 60 of the Act, the court shall summarily inquire into the genuineness of the contract:

(ii) Evidence in the course of such inquiry may be taken on affidavits.

13. Disposal of lease of the mentally ill person.—Where a Manager applies for disposal of a lease or underlease of a mentally ill person, under section 64 of the Act, the court shall hold a summary inquiry to satisfy itself that the disposal of the lease or underlease would be for the benefit of the mentally ill person. The evidence in the course of such an inquiry may be taken on affidavits.

§14. Inquiry where accuracy of inventory or accounts is impugned.—Where the accuracy of an inventory or accounts submitted by the Manager under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 60 of the Act is challenged by a petition under section 66 of the Act, the inquiry into the matter, shall be marked to the Senior Subordinate Judge, Una; in case the Manager is appointed by the District Court and to the District Collector, Una, where the Manager is appointed by the Collector.

15. Application for leave to sue for accounts.—The District Court shall not allow a relative of a mentally ill person to sue for accounts from any Manager of the property of mentally ill person, unless such relative makes an application supported by an affidavit and the court after holding a summary inquiry, is satisfied that the Manager is prima-facie guilty of breach of trust.

16. Maintenance of accounts of receipts and disbursement by the person appointed under section 71.—(i) Where the District Court, instead of appointing a Manager of the property of the mentally ill person, appoints a person to realise the money and/or the produce of any property, due to the mentally ill person and authorises such person to apply the money and/or produce, received by him, for the maintenance of mentally ill person and/or the members of his family, in accordance with the provision of Section 71, such person shall maintain accounts of the cash and produce so received/realised by him and their utilisation for the maintenance of the mentally ill person, or his family members. Initial statement of such accounts shall be filed in the court within three months of the appointment of such person and thereafter statements of accounts shall be filed after every two months ;

(ii) Nazir of the court shall make entries in the register referred to in Para-11 of these Regulations, on the basis of the statements filed by such person, in the manner laid down in the aforesaid para, showing receipts on one side and disbursements on the other.

Sd/-
District Judge, Una.
